

Featured contents screen.
no login required
shows curated apartments
Opportunity to bill clients for this service, maybe version 1.5 can be a In app purchase to get featured.
have it queue based and time based, first come first serve ?

The main menu
If the user is not logged in that button will prompt the two screens to the right for with sign in or sign up

If the user is signed in tapping on the username will show a two part list.

Part 1 : apartments recently viewed
part 2 : your uploaded apartments

If the user is signed in
tapping on the username will show a two part list.

Part 1 : apartments recently viewed
part 2 : your uploaded apartments

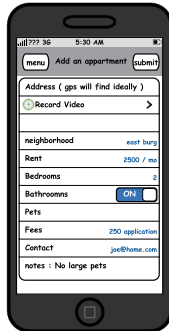

Blue indicator arrows are place holder for an icon that will let the video owner know that they have Recently viewed will be limited to 10 per user ( best to keep it short vs long )

Each video row will drill down to a apartment details view (show below)

This is the initial view for adding an apartment to rent.
all table rows are user editable.
GPS will try to outpopulate the address
Video button will load up the standard IOS camera roll for recording media

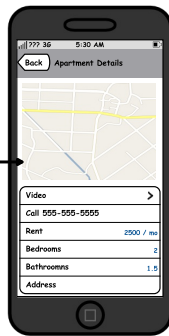

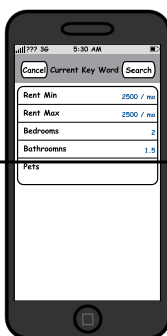

You will get a notice that a video has been posted where the content owner will be responsible for moderating the video and approving it to go live.

You will get a notice that a video has been posted where the content owner will be responsible for moderating the video and approving it to go live.

Filters screen will present modally

All apartment owner entered content will be presented if available.

Users must choose to watch a video, no reason to chew up bandwidth if not needed.